

2016 WINNERS 9TH ANNUAL NATIONAL ARTS & ENTERTAINMENT JOURNALISM AWARDS

A. JOURNALIST OF THE YEAR

A1. Journalist of the Year - Any platform

1st – Eriq Gardner, The Hollywood Reporter

Judge's comments: In a number of extensive, incisive and provocative articles about the legal entanglements of Hollywood celebrities, such as Roger Corman and Hulk Hogan, and a portrait of President-elect Trump's Hollywood lawyer in the Trump University lawsuit, Eriq Gardner has provided memorable journalism, earning him this top award.

2nd – Lucas Shaw, Bloomberg

3rd – Dylan Howard, American Media

B. ANY MEDIA PLATFORM

B1. Business – Any Platform

1st – Kim Masters, The Hollywood Reporter, “HBO's High Class Problems”

Judge's comments: Masters uses her masterful knowledge of the inner workings of Hollywood to craft a piece that shows the pressure that HBO faces to keep its Time Warner overlords happy. It is struggling to come up with another megahit like Game of Thrones, and she details how executives haven't been shy about halting expensive productions that aren't showing early promise.

2nd – Gerry Smith, Bloomberg News, “ESPN's Dilemma in a Mobile Age Where Fans See Clips All Day”

3rd – Matt Donnelly, Itay Hod and Beatrice Verhoeven, TheWrap, “The Sony Hack: One Year Later.”

B2. Industry/Arts Investigative – Any Platform

1st – Daniel Miller, Los Angeles Times, “Selling Stardom”

Judge's comment: This outstanding five-part series delves deep into the dark side of Hollywood's casting machine. It unearths the behind-the-scene activities in which actors and filmmakers are lured into throwing away their money on deceitful agents, listing agencies, screeners and others as they desperately try to break into the industry.

2nd – Felix Gillette and Lucas Shaw, Bloomberg BusinessWeek, “Viacom is Having a Midlife Crisis.”

3rd – Ben Westhoff, LA Weekly, “Filming Straight Out of Compton.”

B3. Celebrity Investigative – Any Platform

1st – Dylan Howard, The Hollywood Reporter, “Charlie Sheen, HIV, a Tabloid and My Insane 2-Year Hunt for a Story”

Judge’s comments: Howard became part of Sheen’s inner circle as he broke story after story about the actor’s downward spiral. He was there to chronicle every moment for Radar Online and the National Inquirer. This remarkable story tells how it all happened.

2nd – Brandy Zadrozny and Ben Collins, The Daily Beast, “Kris Jenner and the Shady Crew Behind her $105,000-a-Year Business School”

3rd – Gary Baum and Scott Feinberg, The Hollywood Reporter, “The Tears and Terror of Mickey Rooney’s Final Years”

B4. Multimedia Package – Any Platform

1st – Peter Flax, Gary Baum, Jennifer Laski, Victoria McKillop, Michelle Stark and Wesley Mann, The Hollywood Reporter, “The Last Survivors”

Judge’s comment: This package was the clear winner because the voices are the centerpiece and the writers/videographers/editors/producers did not get in the way of their subjects -- especially in the videos. From poignant text and quotes to mostly black and white imagery -- not to mention the complimentary music – there is a stark richness in this multimedia package. Well done.

2nd – Juan Devis, Catherine A. Quinlan, Hugh McHarg, Matthew Crotty and Nathan Masters, KCET, “Lost L.A.”

3rd – Corinne De Witt, Ampersand USC Annenberg, “Hopscotch”

B5. Broadcast Critic

1st – Marlise Boland, Elyse Ashton, The Anglophile Channel, “OutlandDish – A “Wee” Recap Show”

Judge's comments: With "OutlandDish," Marlise Boland and Elyse Ashton have created an entertaining recap and critique show that will capture you whether you are a fan of the series Outlander or not. Although Boland and Ashton clearly love Outlander, they do not hesitate to point out plot holes and inconsistencies, thereby giving their audience the guidance good critique should offer.

B6. Obituary/In Appreciation – Any Platform

1st – Kim Masters, The Hollywood Reporter, "The Man Who Saved Mom from the Holocaust"

Judge's comments: The gripping story about how the shy, late 106-year-old Nicholas Winton saved the author's mother from the Holocaust – as well as hundreds of other children – makes this an outstanding tribute to a humanitarian.

2nd – Tom Walters and Liam Hyland, CTV, "Harper Lee Obit"

3rd – Susan Bell, USC Dornsife College, "David Bowie: Life and Death of an Icon"

B7. Humor Writing – Any Platform

1st – Jaci Stephen, LA Not So Confidential, "Hello, Goodbye – for Adele"

Judge's comments: Jaci Stephen's self-deprecating, dark humor over Adele's famous song, "Hello," leaves you in stitches as she responds to the singer as if Adele called her!

2nd – Seth Abramovitch, Gary Baum and Peter Flax, The Hollywood Reporter, "The Ultimate Commuting Race Across Los Angeles: Car vs. Train (vs. Bike)"

3rd – Doug Kolk, KTLA 5 News, "Biggest Springsteen Fan Doesn't Meet the Boss"

C. NON-FICTION BOOK

1st – Brooke Hauser, HarperCollins, "Enter Helen"

Judge's comments: Helen Gurley Brown's fascinating cinematically-told story of traipsing through the sexually liberated 60s and becoming a feminist pioneer is a major movie waiting to happen.

2nd – Michael Riedel, Simon & Schuster, "Razzle Dazzle"

3rd – Alessandra Mattanza, Whitestar Publishing Company, "My New York"

D. PRINT – NEWSPAPERS OR MAGAZINES

D1. General News – Print

1st – Ryan Parker, The Hollywood Reporter, “Rick Moranis Isn’t Retired (He Just Doesn’t Know How to Change His Wikipedia Page)”

Judge’s comments: A fun, timely check-in with a comedy legend (who apparently didn’t realize he was so beloved). Parker’s interview with Rick Moranis reminds readers of his body of work and that sometimes life can take a left turn.

2nd – Michael Wolff, The Hollywood Reporter, “Donald Trump’s Only Real Platform is Donald Trump”

3rd – Daniel Miller, Los Angeles Times, “Selling Stardom: A Talent Agent and a Trail of Unhappy Clients”

D2. Celebrity News – Print

1st – Dylan Howard, The Hollywood Reporter/American Media, Inc., “Charlie Sheen, HIV, a Tabloid and My Insane 2-Year Hunt for a Story”

Judge’s comments: Dylan Howard gives an entertaining and unbelievable inside look at how he cultivated and eventually broke the story of Charlie Sheen being HIV positive in the National Enquirer. It’s a glimpse into the crazy world of Sheen at the time, and how he befriended Howard as editor-in-chief.

2nd – Dylan Howard, Melissa Cronin and The National ENQUIRER Staff, The National ENQUIRER, “Charlie Sheen’s $10M HIV Cover-Up: The Threats, The Payoffs, & More Behind Hollywood’s Darkest Secret”

3rd – Dylan Howard, Lachlan Cartwright and The National ENQUIRER Staff, The National ENQUIRER, “You’re A Racist, Brother! Hulk Hogan’s ‘N’ Word Rant Revealed”

D3. Personality Profile/Interview, Under 2,500 Words – Print

1st – Deborah Vankin, Los Angeles Times, “Pioneering Choreographer Rudy Perez, 88, is Legally Blind – But Still Creating New Work”

Judge’s comments: A detailed, lively and moving profile of a passionate and influential artist.

2nd – Ben Svetkey, The Hollywood Reporter, “Shane Black Is Still Looking for Action”

3rd – Jase Peeples, Plus Magazine, “Who’s the Boss Now”

D4. Personality Profile, Over 2,500 Words – Print

1st – Lacey Rose, The Hollywood Reporter, “What Happens When the Enfant Terrible Gets an Enfant”

Judge’s comments: Lacey Rose captures the energy of Ryan Murphy right off the bat in this well-written look at the showrunner’s career and personal life, prior to the phenomenon that was the O.J. Simpson anthology series.

2nd – Sarah Bennett, LA Weekly, “Will Corrido Fans Accept an African-American Singer From Compton?”

3rd – Lacey Rose, The Hollywood Reporter, “Return of the Bro Whisperer”

D5. Industry/Arts Feature, Under 1,000 Words – Print

1st – Pablo Ximenez de Sandoval, EL PAIS, “The Oscars from the Last Row”

Judge’s comments: A vivid and delightful depiction of Hollywood’s biggest night, from an original point of view.

2nd – Chris Palmeri, Bloomberg, “Carnival Rocks the Boat”

3rd – Natalie Jarvey, The Hollywood Reporter, “How Studios are Cashing in on YouTube Stars”

D6. Industry/Arts Feature, Over 1,000 Words – Print

1st – Hillel Aron, LA Weekly, “A Hotheaded Landlord Made a Movie About Murdering His Tenants. Then He Knifed One”

Judge’s comments: Hillel Aron takes the reader down a dark path to the sordid tale of Hollywood ego and attempted murder. An inside look at not only a man on the lam, but how young Hollywood lives under the control of a slumlord.

2nd – Simi Horwitz, FORWARD, “The Jews of Al-Jazeera”

3rd – Tom Teicholz, Forbes.com, “Tapestries of Louis XIV are ‘Woven Gold’”

D7. Celebrity Feature, Under 1,000 Words – Print

1st – Michelle Boston, USC Dornsife Magazine, “The Craftsman”

Judge’s comments: Michelle Boston drew a wonderful portrait of the quiet Edoardo Ponti, son of Sophia Loren and the late Carlo Ponti, and his artistic journey that took him from poetry to film, which he approaches as a craft.

2nd – Barbara Gasser, Maxima, “Diane Kruger: Living Her Dream. Hildesheim, Paris, Hollywood – The German Beauty Has Made It”

3rd – Janet Nepales, Manila Bulletin, “Garner”

D8. Celebrity Feature, Over 1,000 Words – Print

1st – Adam Tanswell, SciFiNow, “The X-Files Reborn”

Judge’s comments: Looking back at the original X-Files, then forward to the new TV series, Tanswell recounts well its storied history and provides excellent portraits of Mulder and Scully – played once again by David Duchovny and Gillian Anderson – and includes informative sidebar guides to the series.

2nd – Eriq Gardner, The Hollywood Reporter, “Roger Corman’s Life? Now that’s a Script”

3rd – Michelle Boston, USC Dornsife Magazine, “The Art of Style”

D9. Critic – Print

Besha Rodell, LA Weekly, “Jon & Vinny’s Grapples with What It Means to Be a Family Restaurant”

Judge’s comments: Besha Rodell makes food fun even if you’re fasting. Her phrase making, wit and appetite for the offbeat are the ingredients of a great read.

2nd – Simi Horwitz, Film Journal International

3rd – M. G. Lord, NY Times Book Review

D10. Columnist – Print

1st – Danielle Berrin, Jewish Journal

Judge’s comments: A thoughtful, well-reasoned, optimistic reflection on the future of Jews and Judaism framed by popular culture and a nod to the TV series “Homeland.”

2nd – Michael Wolff, The Hollywood Reporter

3rd – Randy Lewis, Los Angeles Times

D11. Headline

1st – Christopher Palmeri, Anousha Sakoui, Lucas Shaw and David Gillen, Bloomberg News, “The Godfather’ Studio is Hoping for an Offer It Can’t Refuse”

Judge’s comments: A fine example of what a good headline is supposed to do: Tell the story!

D12. Page Layout

1st – Shanti Marlar, Peter Cury and Christopher Hawkins, The Hollywood Reporter, “We’re Going to F*@k S#%t Up”

Judge’s comments: The combined work of Shanti Marlar, Peter Cury and Christopher Hawkins succeeds in immediately captivating the reader’s interest, which is the foundation of good editorial design. This particular spread features smart and purposeful use of color and typography.

2nd – Shanti Marlar, Peter Cury and Nicholas Brawley, The Hollywood Reporter, “Spielberg in a New Light”

3rd – Dan Knapp and Letty Avila, USC Dornsife Magazine, “As Seen on TV?”

D13. Entertainment Publication - Magazine Or Supplement

1st – The Hollywood Reporter, “The Last Survivors/Oscars 2016/Cannes”

Judge’s comment: The Hollywood Reporter offers its readers insightful commentary, well-researched industry analysis and riveting features. With their attention to design, photography and writing, the team behind The Hollywood Reporter continues to prove that dedication and hard work pay off.

2nd – Sharon Waxman, Steve Pond and Ada Guerin, TheWrap, “TheWrap Magazine”

E. TV/ VIDEO/FILM

E1. TV/ Video/Film – News

1st – Janice Min, Jennifer Laski, Stephanie Fischette and Vincent Venturella, The Hollywood Reporter, “The Sequel is Always Bigger ... ”

Judge’s comments: The Hollywood Reporter’s absorbing interview with the movie Academy leaders provides insight into the controversial lack of black nominees for Oscars for the second year.

2nd – Cheryl Diano and George Pennacchio, KABC, “Death of Prince”

3rd – Tom Walters and David Iacolucci, CTV, “Roman Radio”

E2. TV/ Video/Film – Personality Profile/Interview

1st – Lee Cowan, Dustin Stephens and Lauren Barnello Cowan, CBS News, “Kathy Bates”

Judge’s comments: The profile of Kathy Bates, her acting history and battle with health problems, including lymphedema, is a superb portrait of this funny, down-to-earth woman.

2nd – Mike Amor, Duncan McLeod and Ben Shaw, 7 Network Australia, “Tracy Chapman”

3rd – Doug Kolk and Michael Joseph James, KTLA News, “Trejo’s Tacos”

E3A. TV/ Video/Film – Hard News Feature, Under 5 Minutes

1st – Gina Silva, Christine Devine, Ramona Schindelheim, Ollin Martinez and Anthony Ruiz, KTTV-Fox 11 News, “Akademia Music Scam”

Judge’s comments: Outstanding investigative report exposes a promotional music racket that offers awards for fees paid by naive, heartbroken new music artists.

2nd – John Bathke, Trevor Harmon and William Caldwell, News 12 New Jersey, “Block by Block”

3rd – Cher Calvin, Marcus Wilson Smith and Phil Ige, KTLA, “LA Pride”

E3B. TV/ Video/Film – Soft News Feature, Under 5 Minutes

1st – Michelle Nash and Miguel Endara, FUSION, “Webucation”

Judge’s comments: The excellent Fusion Web education series of well-crafted short videos of young people discussing and demonstrating skills, such as opera singing and break dancing, learned from the Internet is inspiring, and entertaining, for kids of all ages.

2nd – Kimberly Cheng and Nick Simpson, KTLA, “Remembering Dr. Haing S. Ngor”

3rd – Tom Walters and Liam Hyland, CTV - Canadian Television, “Slip of the Tongue”

E4. TV/ Video/Film – Feature, Over 5 Minutes

G. ONLINE

G1A. Online – Industry/Arts HardNews

1st – Eriq Gardner, The Hollywood Reporter, “Why Hulk Hogan’s $140 Million Gawker Verdict is a Signpost for the Future”

Judge’s comment: Insightful and scrupulously reported; a first rate overview of the complex issues in the celebrated case and its likely consequences.

2nd – Matt Donnelly, Itay Hod and Beatrice Verhoeven, TheWrap, “The Sony Hack: One Year Later”

3rd – Kasia Anderson, Truthdig, “Friends of Abe, Hollywood Conservatives’ Secret Society, Is Calling It Quits”

G1b. Online – Industry/Arts Soft News

1st – Tim Teeman, The Daily Beast, “Rose Styron: The Truth About Life With Her Husband, Literary Legend William Styron”

Judge’s comments: A fascinating backstage look at the life of one of America’s literary lions and his family.

2nd – Molly Fitzpatrick, Fusion, “What It’s Like to be Black on The Bachelor”

3rd – Kevin Fallon, The Daily Beast, “Just Keep Prancing: How Five Gay Male Dancers May Change America”

G2. Online – Celebrity News

1st – Melissa Leon, The Daily Beast, “Gillian Anderson: I Was Offered Half Duchovny’s Pay for ‘The X-Files’ Revival”

Judges Comment: An excellent interview, casting a light on a scandal that needs to be exposed and denounced over and over.

2nd – Kasia Anderson, Truthdig, “Friends of Abe, Hollywood Conservatives’ Secret Society, Is Calling It Quits”

3rd – Dylan Howard, Melissa Cronin and Staff, RadarOnline.com, “Charlie Sheen HIV Scandal”

G3. Online – Personality Profile/Interview

1st – Scott Feinberg, The Hollywood Reporter, “Mike Francesa, “King of New York Sports Radio for 30 Years, Prepares to Abdicate His Throne”

Judge’s comments: This timely piece by Scott Feinberg on the “sports pope” Mike Francesa who rose from a part time gig in a Queens basement studio to the pinnacle of his field as a CBS radio sports talk show host is written with insight, humor and lots of sports color. Feinberg shows us the many sides of Francesa as he evolved into an indispensable voice in the Big Apple and across the country for sports fans now eagerly awaiting his next act. Well done!

2nd – Chrissy Iley, Daily Mail, “The Madness of Boy George”

3rd – Shelly Leopold, KCET Artbound, “Betye Saar: Reflecting American Culture Through Assemblage Art”

G4. Online – Film/TV/Theater/Book Feature

1st – Kelsey McKinney, FUSION, “The Truth about Life after American Idol”

Judge’s comments: This well reported and written piece takes the reader behind the glitz and hype of the super hit “American Idol” to the participants whose experiences are often far less glamorous. Even finalists struggle to find their footing in a tough industry after their moment of fame is over. In this piece, Kelsey McKinney puts one of the culture’s most iconic shows in the perspective it deserves. Nice job!

2nd – Jase Peebles, The Advocate, “Can Stonewall Be a Catalyst for Change, Again?”

3rd – Jason Leopold and Ky Henderson, Vice News, “Tequila, Painted Pearls, and Prada – How the CIA Helped Produce ‘Zero Dark Thirty’”

G5. Online – Arts & Entertainment Feature

1st – Tim Teeman, The Daily Beast, “Inside Gore Vidal’s Cliffside Palace of Sex, Scandal, and Celebrity”

Judge’s comments: Tim Teeman expertly takes the reader on a wild ride through the late Gore Vidal’s former Italian villa in prose the master himself would surely appreciate. Indeed the “bird’s nest,” as the mansion nestled above Ravello was called, becomes in Teeman’s hands a metaphor for the complexity of Vidal’s life from his vast literary output, to his varied sex and love life, his alcoholism and even his love of cats. A great read!

2nd – Christopher Palmeri, Bloomberg News, “Disney’s Foreign Curse Could End with China Resort Project”

3rd – Liz Goldner, KCET Artbound, “Laguna Beach in the Sixties: A Colony for the Arts”

G6. Online – Celebrity Feature

1st – John Patterson, Truthdig, “30 Years Gone, and Oh, How We Still Love Orson Welles”

Judge’s comments: Patterson’s incisive feature on Orson Welles through a dialogue with biographer F.X. Feeney that enlightens us about the myths, misconceptions and brilliance of the multi-talented artist is simply top-notch.

2nd – Steve Pond, TheWrap, “Sarah Paulson: The Winds of Change”

3rd – Margaret Gardiner, GoldenGlobes.com, “Suzanne Bier: Directing Action, Intrigue, and Character”

G7a. Online – Theater/Film/TV Critic

1st – Peter Rainer, the Christian Science Monitor

Judge’s comments: The competition was photo-finish in an unbelievably strong field. Rainer’s reviews are a compass showing True North.

2nd – David Rooney, The Hollywood Reporter

3rd – Alonso Duralde, TheWrap

G7b. Online – Book/Cultural Critic

1st – Tim Riley, Truthdig

Judge's comments: A detailed and enthusiastic review of the Sam Phillips biography does what it's supposed to do: makes you want to know more about the origins of modern American music.

2nd – M.G. Lord, NY Times

3rd – Stereo Williams, The Daily Beast

G8A. Online – Commentary/Analysis/Trend

1st – Stephen Galloway, The Hollywood Reporter, "Galloway on Film: I Sat 20 Feet from a Serial Killer"

Judge's comments: Galloway's piece on the trial of Lonnie Franklin, Jr. - the "Grim Sleeper" - not only brilliantly comments on how murder investigations differ between poor and rich victims but also captures how routine is a court trial in contrast with how they are generally portrayed in Hollywood.

2nd – Devra Maza, The Huffington Post, "Art of Resistance: Charlie Hebdo's Antonio Fischetti and Judea Pearl on the War on Journalists"

3rd – Tim Teeman, The Daily Beast, "The Cruel HIV Stalking of Charlie Sheen Takes Us Back to the Ignorant 1980s"

G8B. Online – Diversity/Gender

1st – Isha Aran, Fusion, "Bollywood's Shameful History of Blackface"

Judge's comment: In a surprising expose of the extent of Bollywood actors and actresses in racist "blackface," Isha Aran casts light on a little-known aspect that is attributed to lingering white colonialism; a disturbing commentary on an ongoing trend.

2nd – Jon Frosch, The Hollywood Reporter, "Critic's Notebook: Amid Oscars Debacle, Sundance Diversity Shines"

3rd – Mary O'Hara, The Guardian, "Making it in the Film Industry with a Disability"

G9. Online – Entertainment Website

Janice Min, The Hollywood Reporter

Judge's comments: When it comes to breadth and depth, THR is among the best in entertainment sites. Strong content, a variety of voices/perspectives, engaging videos, and more, are presented in a clean design that does not overwhelm like so many other site. Well done.

2nd – Melody Soto and Zoe Montano, KCET Artbound

2nd – Sharon Waxman, TheWrap
