

THE SABAN THEATRE IN PARTNERSHIP
WITH THE MEDIA LINE PRESENTS

Faces and Future of the Middle East

Join us for a special opportunity to explore the future of journalism in the Middle East with the people shaping it!

Felice Friedson

President and CEO of The Media Line, one of the first women to run a Middle East news bureau, pioneer and leader of journalism in the Middle East.

Michael Friedson

Executive Editor of The Media Line, is a seasoned broadcast and print journalist with more than two decades of experience covering the Middle East.

Asaf Zilberfarb and Dima Abumaria

Journalists covering the streets of Jerusalem and Ramallah for The Media Line, and graduates of The Media Line's Press & Policy Student Program which mentors the next generation of leading journalists covering the region.

This distinguished panel will offer unique insights and perspectives on current events from the streets of the Middle East as well as explore efforts by The Media Line to shape the future of journalism and how the world understands this critical region.

The Media Line, the American news agency specializing in coverage of the Middle East, is renowned for its commitment to providing contextual, fact-based, and sourced reporting that is trusted and relied upon by leaders of government and private sector.
